COMBINED PETITION FOR REVIVAL OF AN APPLICATION
FOR PATENT ABANDONED UNAVOIDABLY UNDER 37 C.F.R. 1.137(a)
AND SHOWING RELATED THERETO UNDER 37 C.F.R. 1.137(a)(3)

Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

Applicants hereby petition for revival of the above-identified application which was unavoidably abandoned. The Petition fee (37 C.F.R. § 1.17(l)) accompanies this Petition. Applicants showing is set forth below. Applicants have submitted this Petition under 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(a), but believe that it could have been presented as a request for reinstatement of an application erroneously abandoned by the Office. The facts are set forth below.

1. On September 14, 1998, Applicants requested to be informed of the status of US Patent application serial number PCT/EP95/02722. On November 19, 1998, Applicants received a letter from the PCT legal office indicating that this application had been abandoned, and that a NOTIFICATION OF ABANDONMENT had been mailed on January 2, 1998.

2. This application was filed with a defective Declaration which did not properly identify the citizenship of the inventors. The Declaration was however signed by all inventors. A notice to file missing parts was issued on April 16, 1997, giving a one month period to reply, extendable under 37 C.F.R. § 1.136(a) for a period of up to five months. On 15 May, 1997, within the one month period, Applicants submitted the Declaration signed by two of the three inventors. The third inventor had meanwhile left the employ~~ee~~ of the assignee. This second Declaration properly indicated the citizenship of all of the inventors. On June 25, 1997, a notification of a defective response was submitted by the PCT legal office. This notification of defective response indicated that applicant is required to complete the response within a time of one month or five months from the date of response set in the Notification of Missing Requirements. This latter date would have been October 16, 1997.

3. Applicants' attorney believed that the two Declarations together fully satisfied the requirements of 37 C.F.R. § 1.497 and 37 C.F.R. § 1.63, and filed a response directing the office's attention to M.P.E.P. § 602.02 which indicated that:

Where neither the original oath or declaration, nor the substitute oath or declaration is complete in itself, but the two taken together give all the required data, no further oath or declaration is needed.

The two Declarations together did indeed give all the required data. Applicants submitted this response to the Patent and Trademark office on July 8, 1997, again well within the one month period of response required by the Notification of a Defective Response, and also within the five month period from the initial notice, which period would expire on October 16, 1997. Applicants received no further communication from the office until they received a letter dated 17 November, 1998 in response to Applicants' Request for Status of the Application, indicating that the application had been abandoned.

4. Applicants' attorney telephoned the PCT legal office and requested a copy of the Notice of Abandonment, which had never been received. Subsequently, a copy of a Notice of Abandonment was received which, however, failed to identify the application. Notably, the serial number was wrong, the first named Applicant was wrong, and the address in Florina, Greece was totally wrong. Applicants are unfamiliar with any of the individuals, with the serial number, or the address identified in this Notification of Abandonment. Applicants never received the Abandonment.

5. Applicants believed that their response filed on July 8, 1997 was a satisfactory response in every respect to the Notification of Defective Response mailed June 25, 1997 and if not totally satisfactory, was at least a bona fide effort to respond. At the very least, Applicants believe that the Office has a duty to inform Applicants when a response is not sufficient.

6. The Manual of Patent Examining Procedure, in Section 714.05, states:

Actions by applicant, especially those filed near the end of the period for response, should be inspected immediately upon filing to determine whether they are completely responsive to the preceding Office action so as to prevent abandonment of the application. If found inadequate, and sufficient time remains, application should be notified of the deficiencies and warned to complete the response within the period.

The Patent Statutes, 35 U.S.C. § 132, indicates that "whenever, on Examination, a claim for a patent is rejected, or any objection or requirement made, the Commissioner shall notify the applicant thereof . . . ."

7. Applicants believed that their response was completely adequate to resolve the issue of the defective Declaration. If not, Applicants would have expected to receive further notification that their response was insufficient. In keeping with M.P.E.P. § 714.05, sufficient time still remained for Applicants to reply if their response were held insufficient. Factually, more than 3 months of the entered period remained. However, Applicants could not be aware that their response was insufficient without being notified of any alleged insufficiency. This, the office never did. Moreover, the Office never informed Applicants of the abandonment of their application. Applicants never received any indication that their prior response was defective and that therefore the period for response was continuing to run. Had the office indicated that the July 8, 1997 response of Applicants was defective in any way, Applicants would have still had time to respond by submitting an Extension of Time extending the time period well into October. Because Applicants never received any notification that this time period was running, and because Applicants never received any indication that the case was abandoned, Applicants submit that the abandonment was unavoidable.

While Applicants believe that their prior response and the two Declarations previously submitted both a bonafide attempt to respond as well as a sufficient response under the law, submitted herewith is a Declaration signed by all three inventors which without question meets all of the statutory requirements.

A check in the amount of $55.00 is enclosed to cover the Petition fee. Please charge any additional fees or credit any overpayments as a result of the filing of this paper to our Deposit Account No. 02-3978 -- a duplicate of this paper is enclosed for that purpose.

Respectfully submitted,

UWE WITT ET AL.
